

WHY CHOOSE RGStitle?

At RGS, we believe that for every real estate transaction—whether it’s the sale of a new construction condominium or a multi-million dollar estate—a well-organized, swift and secure closing is critical. Settlement must happen on time without any unnecessary costs or unexpected complications. Those seamless and stress-free closings are what we strive to provide each of our clients. The company’s expertise and understanding of real estate settlements enables it to tailor our services to fit our customer’s individual needs, as well as anticipate the unexpected and always have an appropriate solution.

A SECURE TITLE PARTNER YOU AND YOUR CLIENTS CAN TRUST

Not only is RGS committed to keeping our real estate partners educated and in compliance, but also our own compliance and security is of utmost importance to the organization. In this highly regulated industry, our team at RGS is dedicated to meeting compliance requirements under federal laws, as well as protecting our clients’ information as data breaches continue to increase. We routinely pass annual audits with the largest underwriters in the industry and staff a full-time compliance officer. RGS Title is certified for our accounting practices with PricewaterhouseCoopers and we use wire transfer protection measures and email encryption. Our clients can be assured that every measure is taken to protect and safeguard the confidentiality of personal information. Just a few of the additional compliance protection efforts we at RGS make on the behalf of our clients’ interests include:

- ALTA Best Practices Compliant
- SSAE SOC 2 Certification pending
- All locations fully vetted by third party compliance company
- E-mail encryption
- Improved technology
- Wire transfer protection

YOUR CONTRACT will be handled in a professional manner by Licensed Title Agents throughout every step of the transaction. We stand behind our company’s professionalism and consistently deliver positive and compliant real estate settlement experiences. Our company prides itself on its ability meet the needs of its clients with impeccable service and industry expertise, as well as the lasting relationships it has built with thousands of local real estate agents. RGS is committed to continued growth and to redefining the way we serve our clients. That’s why RGS Title is more than just a title company; we’re your title partner.
